Whether you made a monetary donation or donated time as an officer or board member, this level of funding could not have been accomplished without your commitment. Your dedication to our high school and our organization is beyond words.

James P. Farrier

James P. Farrier, physical education teacher and coach to thousands of students over his career, which spanned from 1955 to 1984, passed away at Gilchrist Hospice Center in Towson on April 8, 2017 from chronic obstructive pulmonary disease.

According to his son Tom, "My dad was 40 years ahead of his time in letting a girl come out for the boys' soccer team (in 1976) until the county advised them that policy didn't permit her doing so. He was the fairest, most even-handed person I ever knew. He loved nothing more than being spotted and greeted by former students, which having stayed in Towson after retiring from teaching, were "frequent and welcome occurrences".

Our condolences go out to Coach Farrier's wife Barbara and children, Tom '74, Sue '76 and Jeff '80, who are all Towson High Alumni.
